

SUSANNE GOES SINGLE

Lena Hanno Clyne

Born 1957 in Malmberget, Sweden

Married, three children

CV in summary

Lena Hanno Clyne worked as a theatre director 1984-1995.

From 1992 she also works with film, as screen writer, director and development producer.

The following films only include films that has been produced:

Film, scripts directed by others

- Script development supervisor of all short films made by the company Gilda Film (see www.gildafilm.se)
- 2003 ‘ Misa Mi’, feature for children , co-writer (with Martina Stöhr), director Linus Thorell, winner of BAMkid's Film Festival, New York, Chicago International Children's Film Festival, Sprockets Toronto International Film Festival for Children, Giffoni Filmfestival, Cinekid, Amsterdam and other festivals
- 2006 Förortsungar, (Kids in da Hood), script supervisor, winner of 5 Guldbaggar (Swedish National awards), in contest at Berlin Film festival, winner at Kristiansand, Giffoni, Toronto and Cinekid film festivals 2007

Film, development & production

1999-2009 Producer Gilda Film: A selection:

- Three shorts for Television; ‘Nu’, ‘Med andra ögon’ and ‘To Be Continued’. ‘To be...’ (director Linus Tunström) won first prize at five festivals, for instance Semaine de la Critique, in Cannes 2000,
- 2000 Producer of the documentary ‘Shocking truth’ (director Alexa Wolf), was shown at three Parliaments in Europe
- 2002 Producer ‘Just a kid’, short, director Jesper Klevenås winner Montecatini
- 2002 Development producer ‘My bearded mother’, 30 min short, director Maria Hedman Won a Guldbagge for best Swedish short film.
- 2002-3 Development producer Misa Mi (feature)
- 2003-6 Development producer Förortsungar (Kids in da Hood) feature

Film, directing & scriptwriting

- 1992 Manskören (The Male Choir), short
- 1994 En blues for Marilou (A Blues for Marilou), 30 min short for television
- 1996 Istider (Power Failure) 30 min short with cinema release
- 2002 This is Not a Film, short exp
- 2004 Falla Vackert (Falling Beauty), feature film, In contest in 14+ at Berlinale 2005, won best film, best script and best female actress at film festival in Carrousel international du film de Rimouski i Quebec, Canada 2005 amongst other prizes.
- 2006 Susanne blir singel (Susanne goes single), short
- 2009 Amarone, feature In development with support from Swedish Film Institute